MESSAGE

It is a pleasure to learn that Indian Institute of Technology (IIT, BHU) Varanasi is holding its 13th Convocation. It is an occasion to take pride in and celebrate the hard work put in by the graduates, teachers and supporting staff.

The presence of family members, students, faculty, administrative staff and industry leaders makes it even more memorable and is a source of inspiration and excitement for these young graduates.

It is often said that the manner in which a nation uses technology is linked to its values and vision. A result of the indefatigable efforts and vision of Mahamana Madan Mohan Malaviya ji, the ancient city of Varanasi and the divine waters of Maa Ganga provide the perfect backdrop for IIT, BHU. Here, tradition and technology come together.

As they step out from the portals of this institution, these youngsters face bigger challenges of professional life. The academic lessons learnt and the practical experiences at this institution of excellence will guide them in devising solutions to resolve day-to-day challenges faced by the common people.

During the last decade, we have remained fully committed to leverage the power of technology for inclusive growth. We will continue to enhance our technology readiness and global competitiveness.

As we march ahead confidently towards building Viksit Bharat, I am sure that the young graduates will respond to the call of inclusive growth and advancement of humanity through the transformative power of technology. Several generations of alumni have done their alma mater, the family and the nation proud. I am sure that the currently graduating batch will take inspiration from them and tread a similar path.

May the 13th Convocation of Indian Institute of Technology (IIT, BHU) Varanasi be a huge success.

EXHORTATION

Speak the truth. Practise virtue. Do not neglect the study of the Vedas. Having brought to the teacher the desired gift, enter the householder's life and see that the line of progeny is not cut off. Do not swerve from the truth. Do not swerve from dharma. Do not neglect welfare. Do not neglect prosperity. Do not neglect learning and teaching. Do not neglect the duties due to the God and to the parents.

Treat your mother as God. Treat your father as God. Treat your teacher as God. Treat your guest as God. Treat your country as God. Whatever deeds are faultless and irreproachable, these are to be performed, no others. Whatever good works have been performed by us, those should be performed by you, no others. Those learned and wise people who are superior to us, they should be revered by you by the offering of a seat.

Whatever is to be given should be given with faith, not without faith - according to one's plenty, with modesty, with fear, with sympathy

Now, if there arises in your mind any doubt concerning any act, or any doubt concerning conduct, you should conduct yourself in such matters as learned and wise people of sound judgement, competent and devoted, not harsh, and lovers of virtue, as they may conduct themselves in such a case. Now with regard to things ill-spoken, you should conduct yourself in such a way as learned and wise people of sound judgement, competent and devoted, not harsh, and lovers of virtue, as they may conduct themselves in such a case.

This is the commandment. This is the teaching. This is the true purport of Veda. This is the instruction. This you should observe. Thus indeed should this be observed.

O Snatakas, bear this well in your heart and act in good behaviour and conduct.

After the Exhortations are over the candidates will say;
“We are thankful Sir”

Now you may occupy you seats (Then the candidates will occupy their seats).
